Name of your host: Marvin Klassen Relationship to you: Father

The Interview: (ask your host these questions)

1. What is your job title? Lawyer

2. What is your job description? I help people with their legal issues.

3. What are the duties and/or tasks you perform at your job? Advise clients, represent clients in court and immigration and operating a business.

4. What qualifications do you have for this job in the following areas:

a) training? 7 years of university, 1 year of articling and Bar course and exams.

b) education? 4 years of undergrad, 3 years of law school.

c) experience? 1 year of articling under 2 other lawyers. 13 years as a sole practitioner.

d) skills and attributes (personal qualities)? Good listener, problem solver, research, computer skills, aware of what's going on in this world.

5. What are some of the things you like about the job? You get to help people when they have problems and it's always busy and you're always learning.

6. What are some of the things you dislike about this job? Stressful, takes long hours, have to deal with conflict everyday. Sometimes can't help clients no matter how hard you try.

7. How do you anticipate this job changing in the next 5 years or so? Being a lawyer is not going to change a lot but the legal profession will change for sure.

Other question (s):

Why did you want to become a lawyer? Thought it would be interesting career involving the politics of society.

Student Reflections:

1. Give three reasons why you would like this job (be specific):

a) So you can help people get in/stay in the country.

b) To be able to understand the government laws.

c) To know that you are doing a good thing to help other people with their life.

2. Give three reasons why you would not like this job (be specific):

a) There is a lot of paperwork involved= messy office

b) It is very stressful, there is a lot of work to get done in small amounts of time.

c) Having to work long hours and not having a lot of free time to relax.

3. Is this job for you? Why or why not?

I don't think that this job is good for me because I'm not good at things where you need to talk to a lot of people. I am also not good at asking for things from other people. Also I don't think that I'll be good at representing clients in court and not getting scared to talking to the judge and defending the client.

4. Explain the value of the TOKTW experience in relation to your ideas about your post secondary (after high school) plans (education?, training?, travel?, work?).

I don't think that his has a lot of value to me because I have been to both of my parent's jobs (Mom Ministry of Justice) and I don't think that I'm that interesting into law and the government, as I am more interested in computers and digital editing/design.
