

RIVERSIDE SECONDARY'S CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

You have been nominated for RIVERSIDE SECONDARY'S CITIZEN OF THE YEAR award. Now you must give a speech in honour of yourself. When you write your speech, use at least five of your most valuable personal attributes/personal skills. In addition, include anything else that makes you a good citizen and a valued contributor to the Riverside community. What are the reasons you got nominated?

You may write in FIRST PERSON, for example:

Hello, my name is _____ and I have been nominated to become Riverside Secondary's Citizen of the Year.

OR

You may write in THIRD PERSON, for example:

_____ is a very honest person who cares about others' feelings and always puts his/her friends and family first. He/She is the perfect candidate to become Riverside Secondary's Citizen of the Year.

MARKING CRITERIA

Your "judge" will be looking for:

- Positive and upbeat overtones
- Appropriate comments and reasoning
- Truthful statements
- A speaker who sounds prepared
- A candidate whose written speech clearly shows their desire to "win"
- A timeline of approximately 30-45 seconds

*If you act inappropriately during someone else's presentation, you earn a ZERO for yourself. (Please use polite applause during speeches)
