

One of Vancouver's early streetcars, Car 53 survived as a salt car for several years after it retired from regular service. In 1955 it was presented to the PNE, where it was put on public display. Today it sits inside a restaurant in Vancouver's Gastown.

BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF COUNTRY COVERED BY B. C. ELECTRIC RAILWAY SYSTEM

VANCOUVER ISLAND - Victoria-Enquimalt-Saanich Line

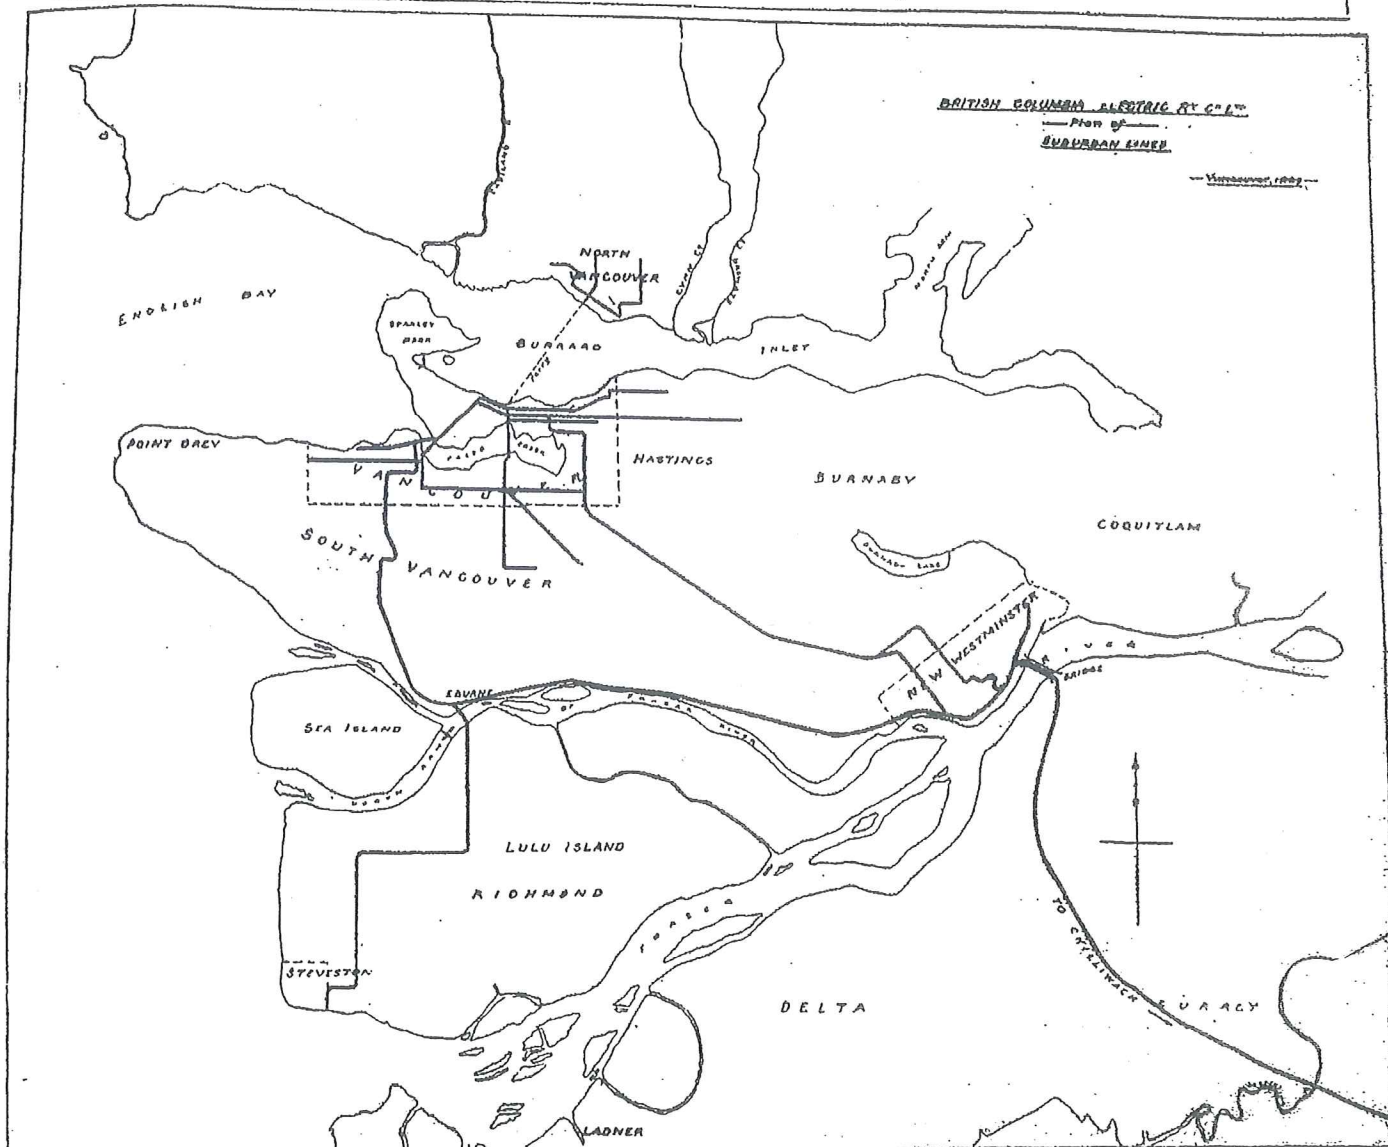

MAINLAND LINES - Vancouver, Point Grey, North Vancouver, New Westminster, Vancouver and Chilliwack, Vancouver and New Westminster (3 lines), Vancouver and Seveston.

VANCOUVER, B. C.

The Centre of the Trolley Line System of the Lower Fraser Valley

Phenomenal Development of The Agricultural Lands in the Rich Area Ex ending Along the River and Its Tributaries from the Gulf to the Canyons.

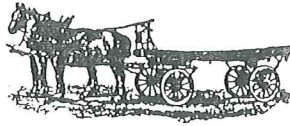

Vancouver newspaper, 1907.

CHARLES IRVINE

THOMAS HARWOOD

Electric Express Co.

Successors to R. McClinton & Co.

Express and Dray Line

Piano and Furniture Moving. Light and heavy hauling of all kinds. Dealers in Coal.

43 Cordova St. E.

Phone 1041

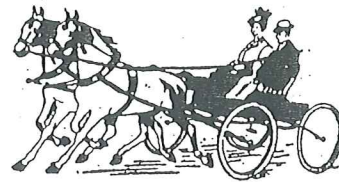

F. A. LEE

Pioneer
Hack Stand

Hacks on Stand Day and Night
All Orders Promptly Attended to.

Office: 219 Cambie St.

Telephones { Office 172 and 917
Stable 195

STANLEY PARK LIVERY AND FEED STABLES

HACKS, CARRIAGES AND BUGGIES
Double and Single Drivers, Saddle Horses

We make a specialty of providing Hacks for Weddings, Balls, Theatres, etc.

Everything new and up-to-date.

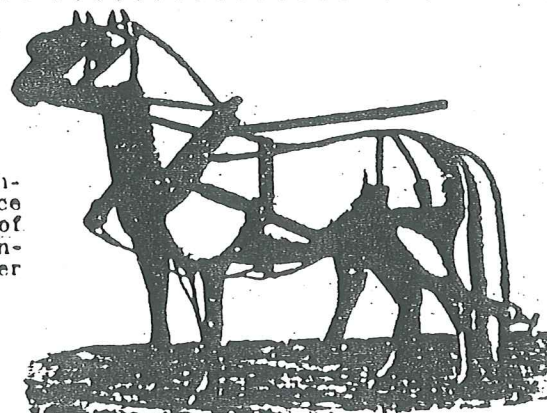

ALEX. MITCHELL, Prop. Telephone 138

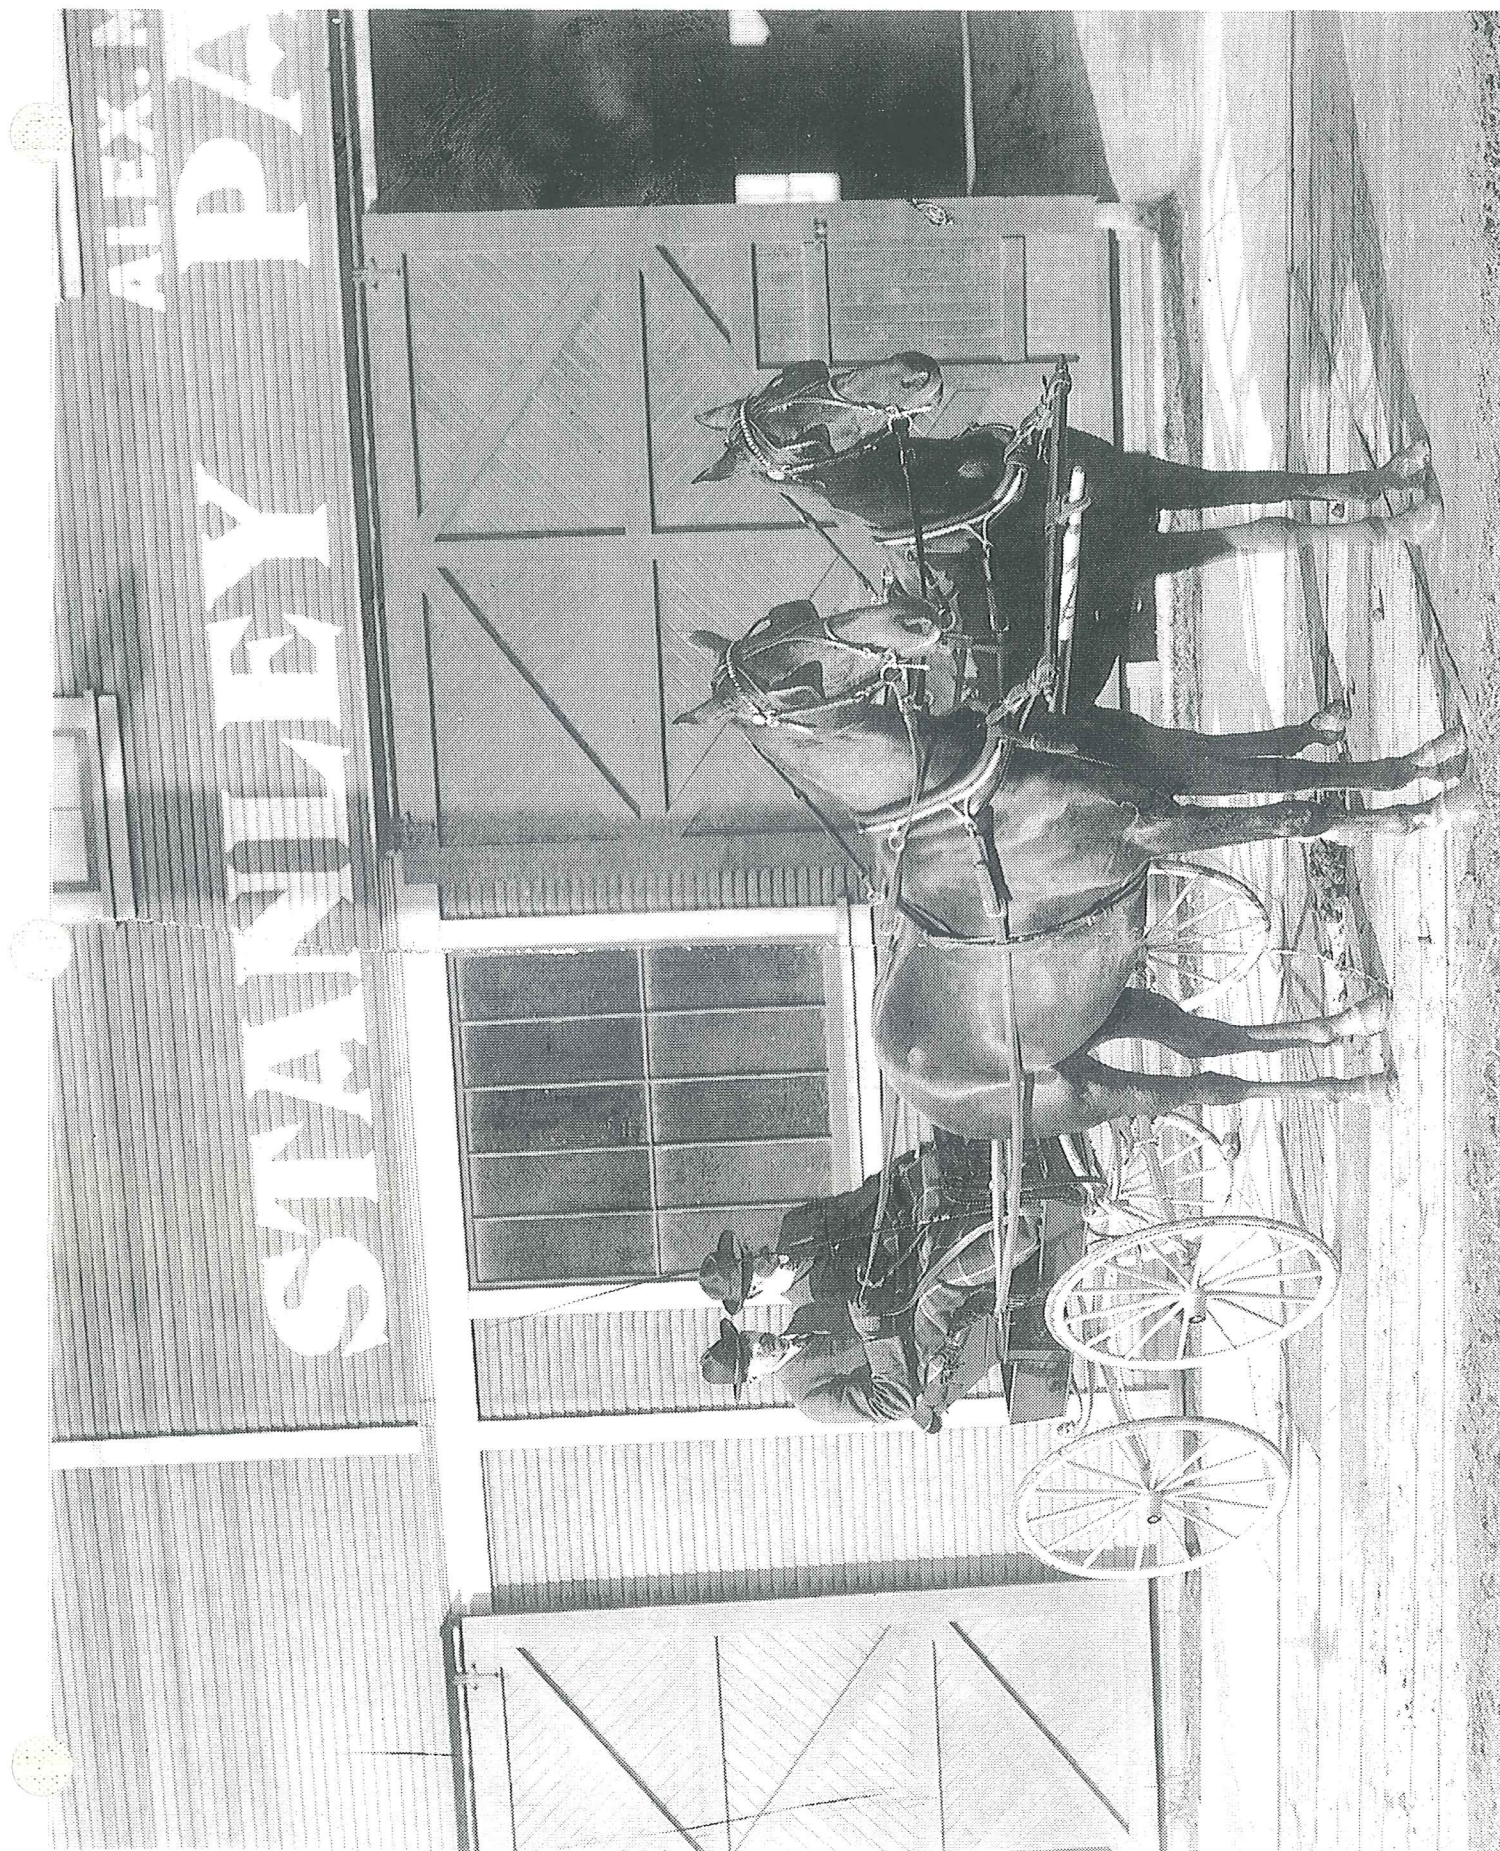

Rear Bank of Montreal ——— Vancouver, B.C.

HORSES FOR SALE

Heavy or light draught, weighing up to 1700 pounds; also choice drivers. Can be seen at rear of street car barn, between Barnard and Prior, on Westminster avenue.

C. H. AUTIER

Alex Mitchell in his buckboard in front of Stanley Park Livery and Stables - S. W. corner of Seymour and Dunsmuir Streets, 1906. City of Vancouver Archives, Bu P494.