

Asexual Reproduction

November 15, 2016 12:54 PM

A picture says
1000 words

Budding

- New organism on old
- New organism matures
- Separates with old
- Parent has off springs
- When grown enough the Child leaves

Grafting

- Combination of 2 things to create 1

Cloning

Notes below

-reproduction of a single organism

Asexual Reproduction

- Nucleus attacked
By other subatomic particles
- Splits into 2

Fission

- 1 splits
- 1 gives shell to another
- One without cell leaves
- Other one now had A protective layer

Spores

Name

Asexual Reproduction

What do you KNOW?

- Make more copies of one's self

What do you Wonder?

- If it effects the offspring in any way

Science in Context Experts Assignment

Form: Cloning

1. Find real examples of your form of asexual reproduction
2. Watch a video (or two)
3. Look up images and draw a picture on your sheet
 - a. add labels/words/arrows/colour
4. Describe the process

Identical twins of something are created when a fertilized egg splits, creating 2 eggs with almost the exact DNA.

5. Define asexual reproduction in less than 10 words

Identical genetic copy of something or someone.

6. Be prepared to share what you now know with your group.
7. Find out something about what makes you wonder.
8. Search these key words: (or help a friend when finished)

Parthenogenesis
Mitosis

Vegetative Reproduction
Sexual Reproduction

