

This student plays a lot of drinking games or binge drinks every weekend and then often can't remember what went on at that time. The student often gets into situations like fights or makes bad decisions about sexual activity but can't even remember what goes on afterwards.

This student drinks at least two energy drinks every day. In addition, the student mixes the energy drinks with alcohol every time there's a party. The student feels like it's impossible to function without the energy drinks.

This student smokes about a pack of cigarettes every week. The student is always coughing but still has to get out to the smoking pit no matter what; even when there's rain, snow, a blizzard or whatever.

This student smokes weed about once a year with friends.

This student drinks and smokes weed almost every day. The student's home life is awful because there are constant issues since her parents realize what she is doing but nothing they say makes her stop. They have tried to get her to go to counselling but she refuses. She is now failing every course at school and having lots of problems in her peer group too.