The 2081 Charter of Rights and Freedoms

#200: Equality is granted to all; race, gender, sexuality and abilities shall not impact the equality of individuals in society.

#201: All individuals must be emotionally and physically equal to one and other; if not imposed rules will apply.

#202: Everyone has the freedom of belief, thought and opinions; unless they jeopardize the relationships and equality between them and society.

#203: If one's accomplishments or abilities surpass the majority's average ability; they must be detained using the correct and proper manner:
 (a) a government transmitter in the ears of those who have above average intelligence; in extreme cases a tremendous pair of earphones shall be worn with thick wavy spectacles;
 (b) beauty shall be concealed with masks; in extreme cases rubber noses, black teeth caps and shaven eyebrows will be added;
(c) strength shall be counteracted by wearing sash weights and bags of birdshot; in rare occasions scrap metal will be hung from the body to add extra weight.

#204: The manipulation of handicaps will result in a $2,000 fine and incarceration for two years per tampered handicap.

#205: If handicaps fail to make one equal to the rest of the population; Handicap Enforcers are authorized to incarcerate one without trial.

#206: Escaping imprisonment will result in an immediate death.

#207: Only the Handicapper General has the authority and ability to modify and add laws when acting upon restoring society's equality.

#208: Handicap Enforcers are authorized to intrude anywhere they please; if they have a suspicion that law is being violated.

#209: Handicap Enforcers can grant imprisonment without trial.

#210: If one choses to rebel against handicap laws; they shall be sentence to death or life in prison.

#211: All technology is controlled and regulated by the government.

#212: The act of heroism or leadership is punishable by death.

#213: Removing handicaps completely or influencing other individuals to do so will result in immediate neutralized and executed.