

Making Sense of Background Knowledge: Building Understanding of the Essential Question

After watching a movie or listening to a TEDtalk or reading a piece of literature, a poem, or any other piece of writing, fill in the chart below. When complete, file into your "Inquiry" folder OR print and keep for future reference. You teacher may ask to keep your work as an example to expand understanding in the class

Title Harrison Bergeron Your name: Eva Lian

Which Essential Question(s) is addressed in this piece of literature?	Content: a) What happens in the text/movie/Talk? b) What is the main message/theme?	Understanding: How does the text answer the EQ? Answer in full sentences. Record relevant quotes and page numbers/lines if needed.
Why do we always follow the crowd?	Harrison was being caught because he is smarter and stronger than most people. He broke out of the prison to went to the studio, saying himself as "Emperor" and had a dance there with an "Empress". He died because of being shot by the Handicapper General.	people are afraid to be different, to be unique, because the government is using violet ways to kill the idea of being unique. just like Harrison Bergeron, he just died after being unique on ideas and taking off handicaps. It's mostly because of the stress from the society and the government. Just like homo, people are more likely to accept difference and unusual to others, while it doesn't seems going so well and being so accepted in other countries which doesn't has a law saying that if it's illegal. It depends on the