

common symptoms include:

- hallucinations
- delusions

both conducted from the same space within the brain. While some are more public and even aggressive:

- losing track of words and not being able to conduct a proper conversation.
- Being indiseive or making irrational decitions.
- forgetting this said or done to them.
- losing feelings and other senses.
- moving slowly/ being tired or too hyper active.