

Clam Gardens as an Example of Traditional Ecological Knowledge

Spheres Unit – Lesson 1

Read through “Clam Gardens.”

Below are statements related to Traditional Ecological Knowledge. Record evidence of each statement from your reading and various video clips shown in class.

TEK is local knowledge	TEK is cumulative knowledge	TEK understands interconnectedness	TEK is necessary for survival
TEK practices sustainability	TEK understands the connections between aspects of the local ecosystem: plant species, animal species, habitats, landforms, weather and seasonal changes

