

TEN WITH A FLAG

BY: Aiden Han

1 INTRODUCTION:

In a future where people's social status is rated from 1 to 10, Johnnie and his pregnant wife are also being mistreated by an unjust government with the low number.

2 INITIATING INCIDENT:

Mr. White tells Johnnie and his wife that their unborn child will have a high authority of 10, but also that the baby will be born with a flag, which means both the child and parents will have to sacrifice a great deal

3 RISING ACTION:

There is a disagreement between Johnnie and his wife over their different opinion. As opposed to his wife, Johnnie wants to get rid of the child out of fear that the flag will make him lose his wife and bring a lot of misery, make them to visit Dr. Jones

4 CLIMAX

In fact, about the child's flag was a trick for the government to test against Johnnie and he was eventually arrested on the spot for trying to get rid of his baby

5 FALLING ACTION

Despite seeing everything that was going on, Johnnie's wife decided to put up with it for the sake of her child. Then, Mr. White informs her that Johnnie and she are no longer together and she can replace her husband of an eight to nine-level social class.

6 CONCLUSION

During a conversation with Johnny's wife, Mr. White revealed that Central had 99 percent accuracy in predicting what sort of decision her husband would make. His final response to the question about her baby was that he wouldn't be surprised for her baby to work for human service in the future that punished Johnnie for being a traitor against the government

THEME:

Putting in place a system in which the government knows so much about people's privacy and the world is classified by numbers will cause people to be out of order and have negative effects.
