Economic Theory 12 is an excellent class that taught me how to think critically. This class mentioned many social issues that increase my awareness of social responsibility. A lot ^{of} controversial issues and interesting Economic facts were talked in this class, which let me use many perspectives to treat a situation or phenomena. We could through many careers to see a phenomena or a situation, affect people in different level. Also, students could ^{how to} discuss together which let us hear more opinion about one thing. Therefore, this class make me think more carefully, creatively and critically.
