

Getting to Know the Creative Me

In my class,	I did this / these act	ivities	which helped me develop my crea	ative thinking.
Check the box $()$ that best describe you as a creative person. After you make your selections, give practical examples or evidence of why that description is true.
☐ I am an innovator .	I take risks to create somethi	ng unique.
□ I am a synthesizer. I blend lots of concepts together from lots of different fields to create something new.
☐ I am a reproducer or modifier. I improve on other people's ideas.
□ I am a practicalizer . I make random or abstract ideas practical for everyone to see or use.
 I am a dreamer. I have lots of great ideas, but I don't know how to put them into practice or make them real.
Here are some examples of my thinking that support this belief:
My strengths as	a creative thinker:	My opportunities to improv as a creative thinker:	⁄e

Now you can use what you have reflected upon here to write your competency reflection as an Edublog post: Go to your Edublog, open the Core Competencies tab, start a new post using the Self-Assessment template.

Adapted from

Erkens, Schimmer, Vagle, (2018) Growing Tomorrow's Citizens in Today's Classroom, Bloomington, IN: Solution Tree Press