

REJECTION FROM FAMILY

EDITED BY JAMES TRAN

INTRODUCTION

- The video I was so ashamed... he's gone was created by CBC Docs with the intention of inspiring people to do what's right.

- It described a significant story about a girl feeling embarrassed by her father's job.
- Being too proud and ashamed to have a father with a simple life.

SHAMEFUL FEELINGS

- The girl had always avoided her dad at school since he was the school janitor.
- She even pretended not to recognise him after being called by her name.
- She was afraid of people judging and laughing at her.

PRIDE

- The girl felt embarrassed and wanted to become the daughter of the dad she wants.

THE TRUTH

- The dad wanted to give her daughter the attentions which he could not get from his mother in the war time.

CONCLUSION

- She regretted treating her dad rudely after he passed away.
- It delivers a magnificent message to people that never rejects and feels ashamed at who you truly are.
- Teaching kids why they should respect their parents is a great method to solve this problem.
