

YOU'RE INVITED TO THE MOST CONTROVERSIAL WEDDING OF THE SEASON

As you can see at the end of Act II Scene 6, Shakespeare never writes a wedding scene for Romeo and Juliet. Write the scene for their wedding as if you're a fly on the wall – in your group, you can pick between these two options:

1. Try Shakespeare's verse and add a wedding scene to Romeo and Juliet
2. Take a modern, creative spin and pretend you're their free wedding planner (-let's face it, they didn't have any time or money to hire you). What are they wearing? Did they write their own vows? How did they celebrate afterward?

-Just remember the circumstances of their marriage while writing!
