

Section A

What aspect of society do you think about or wonder about?

An aspect of society I think about is all the countries which are in poverty and have bad living standards. There are many countries that have bad quality of life mostly in South America and Africa and there are many people who have to live in poor living conditions. There are many families who struggle to afford food and have to do anything they can to survive, there are also many places in the world where people aren't able to eat clean food or drink clean water because of the living conditions which I find very sad. I've read some articles before and some stated there are currently over 700 million people living in poverty all over the world.

Section B

What online website shares the same beliefs as you?

A program that shares beliefs with me is UNICEF, UNICEF is a human aid organization and help raise money for kids all over the world who are in poverty and have rough living conditions. UNICEF has raised over 7 billion $ for kids all around the world and has saved many lives. UNICEF also provides education for children who aren't able to get any education. UNICEF has made me realize how lucky I am to live my life and that it should not be taken for granted. I believe UNICEF is one of the best organizations involved in helping people all across the world and that's why I share beliefs with it.

One thing I like to do online is play video games with my friends. I play many different games and play quite often and some of my favourite games are Apex Legends, Valorant, and Dead by Daylight. Another thing I like to do online is watch shows or watch youtube I normally like to stay up late and watch a show until I get tired. Some of my favorite shows to watch are One Piece, Attack on Titan, Fate / Stay Night, and Vinland Saga. Ever since covid started I've started playing way more video games and watching way more shows than I used to and I've found some of my favorite things because of it.

What is something you have recently discovered online?

One of the recent discoveries I've made online was the game Valorant. At the start of covid I decided to buy my own PC and my friend recommended that I should download Valorant, I listened to him and downloaded the game and now it's become one of my favorite games to play with my friends. When I first learned about Valorant I wasn't very good at the game but now that I've been playing for a while I've started to get pretty good at the game. I'm happy my friend recommended the game to me because it's a super fun game and me and my friends always have a good time while playing it.

Section 1

What is a recent video you love and why?

A recent video that I like is a short clip from the anime "One Piece". The reason I like the video is because One Piece is my favourite anime and the clip is one of my favourite scenes. The clip is a scene of the main character and a villain fighting and the animators of the show did an amazing job animating the scene. I also liked the scene because it was one of the main fights of the show and the story behind the fight was really interesting and the writer of the show made the scene amazing. The scene is also a foreshadow to many other good parts of the show which is another reason I like the scene. Overall the scene was amazing and is one of my favorite parts of any show I've watched.

Section 2

Favorite app

My favorite app right now is TikTok. The reason TikTok is my favorite app is because sometimes when I have nothing to do I like to just scroll through a bunch of tiktok videos. I also like tiktok because some of the videos on it are pretty funny and sometimes me and my friends will just send each other TikToks that we find funny. Another reason its my favorite is because I don't really use any other apps unless im texting my family or friends but I normally dont need my phone to talk to them so TikTok is basically the only app I use. I also like TikTok because the videos are short and only 3 minutes max which means you can watch a lot of videos in a short amount of time and wont be watching the same video for an hour.
