INT. TIME SAFARI INC. HEAD OFFICE. DUSK

The sun is just setting as ECKELS walks nervously toward the fluorescent green neon sign that reads "TIME SAFARI, INC. SAFARIS TO ANY YEAR IN THE PAST. YOU NAME THE ANIMAL. WE TAKE YOU THERE. YOU SHOOT It" sitting on top of the rundown strip mall from the 60s. He swings the door open, the sound of chimes goes off as he meets eyes with TRAVIS the owner of time safari Inc.

TRAVIS

(TRAVIS sits behind the counter on an old bar stool. He swings around as Eckels walks through the door)

Well hello Mr. Eckels ... welcome to time safari Inc. Where your gaming dreams come true, we've been waiting for you.

ECKLES

(Eckels nervously walks toward the counter.)

Um hello there ... how did you um known I was coming in today?

TRAVIS

(Travis puts his hand out waiting for the check not acknowledging Eckels concern)

Are you ready to begin?

ECKELS

(Eckels put out the check)

Yes everything is here, all 10gs of it.

TRAVIS

Alright follow me just down here...

ECKELS

(Eckels says frantically)

Isn't there a form or something I have to sign saying that I wont die or that ill come home or something?

TRAVIS

(Travis speaks calmly and rehearsed)

TRAVIS (CONT'D)

As stated on the sign we will take you to see the dinosaurs as promised but after that we promise nothing sir, but the dinosaurs. Now this Lesperance, he will be assisting us on our journey today.

TRAVIS AND ECKELS walk down a dimly lit hall way. LESPERANCE A short slightly over weight man in a safari uniform walk out from a mysterious corner without skipping a beat he begins to talk very fast.

LESPERANCE

(starts walking swiftly down the dark hall way)

Hello there are you ready ? Ok good follow allowing or you'll be left behind time waits for now one not even a time machine. You are about to embark on a life changing journey, back in time to see some of earths most amazing creations. This is not a game and it is most defiantly real life, your life or your death. These dinosaurs are not tamed and they are Hungary, they will eat you if ... if you don't do exactly as I say. Do you understand?

ECKELS

(walk frantically trying to keep up behind Travis and Lesperance)

Are you trying to scare us? Like it cant really be that bad?

LESPERANCE

(stops dead in his tracks and turns around to look Eckels right in the eyes)

Yes we are trying to scare you because we don't need some armature going back in time and screwing up then us losing our business or worse our life's. Now back to the orientation you must, must keep your oxygen helmets on at all times and at all cost stay on the path capeesh. If you don't stay on the path you will be fined $10,000 and government action could and will be taken against you.

ECKELS

What path and why is it so important?

TRAVIS

The path ... oh the path, you must stay on the path no matter what.

LESPERANCE

Just think about it this way, one mouse... you stand in the way of one mouse, it changes its cores it no longer got eaten by the fox. So the fox went hunger and later died. Which means the foxes' baby's never ate all the little bugs they were supposed to. So now the bear shave to over compensate and they are to full they no longer can run or fish. So our oceans our over run with fish which means an unbalance which could lead to whole raises never even begin just because a mouse took a wrong turn because your foot was in the way the world was no longer effect by the fox. The world I specials that way my friend you rely on the little mouse and the little mouse relies on me to make sure you stay on the bloody path does it make sense now? Well this is our stop, the time machine in all its glory.

ECKELS

Wow... um I've never seen a real time machine before...

TRAVIS

No many people have.

The three clime into the big metal box and meet two other travelers by the names of Jake and Stan.

LESPERANCE

A few more ground rules before we take off on our journey. Again just to make sure every one is clear you stay on the path no matter what you go a stray don't bother coming back its that simple. Next don't shoot until I say not a moment sooner not a moment later.

(MORE)

LESPERANCE (CONT'D)

You shoot where and when I say so is that clear... good. Is every one ready?

The time machine door closes and day and month and years go by, suns and moons pass. 2019, 2000, 1950, 1800, 1700 and the machine roared off. The doors open slowly sounds of accent birds and dinosaurs fill the air. Lesperance is the first off the machine.

EXT. THE JUNGLE. - MID DAY

LESPERANCE

Perfect we are just on time. 4 mi
ntues till our dinosaur arrives.
