

Public Broadcasting

What is Public Broadcasting?

cbc.ca

The response to what is Public Broadcasting?

- Public Broadcasting is funded by the government and, is controlled by the public and is heard on the radio and watched on Television example of public broadcasting would be Canada's CBC and the BBC in the United Kingdom, PBS down in the United States. Public Broadcasting provides TV shows and movies based on where a citizen is from for example if you go to CBC on TV, and movies they all are Canadian based films. And can promote local artists who sing and perform it also can communicate with visually impaired and hearing impaired and uses the two main languages in the country Canada itself uses French and English.

Who is Canada's Public Broadcaster?

CBC

Canada's Public Broadcaster and what do they provide?

- Canada's Public Broadcaster is CBC which stands for Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. The CBC provides local updates news about Covid- 19 and, promotes television and movies based on Canadian films the CBC also supports local artist in Canada.

What is the difference from the CBC and the BBC?

CBCnews
network

CBC/ Canada

- The CBC standing for (Canada's Broadcasting Corporation) gives more Canadian local news than other countries news and in the TV section and Movie selection it shows only Canadian based films and promotes local artist and performers in Canada and uses the language English and French as Canadas two main speaking languages and can communicate with the visual impaired and citizens with hearing disabilities.

BBC/ United kingdom

- The BBC stands for (British Broadcasting Corporation) and is funded by the government the BBC gives British information and produces more British information and has British tv shows and movie just the opposite of CBC but there is a variety of news on BBC it gives USA and Canadian news and information of Covid-19 and shows information on the American election.

What the BBC and CBC have in common?

- First, they are both CBC and BBC funded by government they both stick to local news of their own nation and both have own country's television films and shows only united kingdom shows and same for Canada it only shows Canadian based films and promotes local artist and information of Covid-19 and has an option of US election.

Thanks for watching