

RED RISING

BY PIERCE BROWN

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

- American Science Fiction Author
- His mother, Colleen Brown, was the president and CEO of Fisher Communications
- His father, Guy Brown, Is a former local banker
- After he graduated he worked a variety of jobs in politics.
- He wrote 6 novels and faced rejection from over 120 agents before selling Red Rising

CLASS SYSTEMS

- Social class Is dependent on your occupation, economy and wealth.
- The upper class benefit the most because they have more control over resources and higher respect and esteem.

Upper Class

Middle Class

Working Class

- The authority is groups with power of money and reputation who have the huge impact on country's aspects.
- Individual fails to stand up to authority because they are alone and do not have impact on government's decisions.

STANDING UP TO AUTHORITY

CORRUPT GOVERNMENT

- Using money and reputation to get out of trouble.
- Taking others money legally to help serve themselves rather than help the community

BELIEFS

- Standing up for what you believe In builds self-respect because you're following through with your values.
- The first step to success is believing in what you want to do.

