RC 2436
(b) Where the doing of any act would, by reason of the circumstances arising from the present state of war, be prejudicial or injurious to the rights or interests of any applicant, patentee or proprietor as aforesaid.
Such extension of any prescribed time, if granted after its expiration, shall have the same effect as if granted prior thereto, provided such expiration occurred on or after the fourth day of August, 1914.

6. The Commissioner may refuse to register the assignment of any patent made by a subject of any State at war with His Majesty and filed in the Patent Office on or after the fourth day of August, 1914, unless satisfied that such assignment was made in good faith and not for the purpose of evading any of the provisions of the foregoing Orders and Regulations.

7. The term "person" used in these Orders and Regulations shall, in addition to the meaning given thereto by paragraph 20 of section 34 of "The Interpretation Act", include any government department.

8. These Orders and Regulations shall come into operation as and from the fourth day of August, 1914.

9. The Orders and Regulations respecting Patents of Invention made under "The War Measures Act, 1914", and dated the 11th September, 1914, are hereby rescinded and repealed.

G.C. 6

MILITARY SERVICE ACT, 1917

MEN IN CLASS 1

That is British subjects who were on 6th July, 1917, unmarried, or widowers without children, who were 20 years old on 13th October, 1917, and were born in or since 1883. (and are not within the exceptions set out in the King's Proclamation of the 13th of October, 1917,) you should, whether you have been medically examined or not,

GO TO ANY POST OFFICE

in the Province in which you ordinarily live and ask the Postmaster for a form of

REPORT FOR SERVICE

which you will fill in and for which you will be given a receipt. Every man in Class 1 must either report for service

OR CLAIM EXEMPTION

or exemption must be claimed on his behalf, on or before 10th November, 1917. If you propose to claim exemption, the Postmaster will furnish the proper form for you to fill in and will give you a receipt for it. If you have been medically examined you will save trouble by

ATTACHING YOUR MEDICAL HISTORY SHEET, IF YOU HAVE ONE

to the form of Report for Service or Claim for Exemption, which ever you choose.
