

Ten With a Flag Infographic

By: Joseph Paul Haines

1

Introduction

In the introduction of the story, the young couple went to the doctors for a check up and the baby may have a disability meaning it could be a special child, they were both worried and the husband started speeding on their way home until they had an appointment with Human Services.

Initiating Incident

Johnnie finds out that their baby has a flag meaning it would take a lot of work to handle and the parents could be in danger. They start to panic, and Johnnie tries to explain to her wife about their baby having a flag, they start to discuss what they would want to do with the baby.

2

3

Rising Action

The family finally meets with Mr. White and discuss about their baby, Mr White tries to explain the problems they would have while keeping the baby, he tries to convince the parents what he would want to do with the baby.

Climax

After discussing what they going to do with their baby they go to the doctor to get the baby removed but then once they got to the doctors they change their mind last minute and talks about their decision again.

4

5

Falling Action

Johnnie gets arrested by the Human Services because he wanted to destroy the baby in his wife stomach for the safety of his life and his wife's life, Central already knew that he will act this way but at the end the wife is safe because she decided to keep the child that the husband wanted to get rid of.

Conclusion

In conclusion the story talks about the dangers of the government controlling the innocent lives, and the story also shows that a young married couple had to make an decision of keeping their child or having the decision to have an abortion.

6

7

Theme

I found out 2 themes of the book, first one is government, and the second is personal worth, these to themes are talking about how the government over controls our lives and we do not have our own rights to make our own decisions for ourselves. the government in the book is overstepping it's boundaries into the privacy of the civilians lives.

Plot

In the book Ten With a Flag young married couple has to make a life changing decision, because of their not yet born baby that apparently has a flag. The couple has a more complicated life due to the overpowered government investigator called Mr. White, he has the power to control

8