

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

BLOCK: _____

/25

FINDING FORRESTER
QUESTIONS

Answer the following questions as completely as possible on a separate sheet of paper.

1. Identify the protagonist. Explain your choice. (Hint: There may be more than one) (2 marks)
2. Identify the antagonist. Explain your choice. (Hint: There may be more than one) (2 marks)
3. Identify three conflicts that develop throughout the movie. State the conflict type (man vs.) and explain it. (6 marks)
4. What do you think the following quotations mean? Explain the importance of each quotation.

"The first key to writing is to write, not to think." (William Forrester) (2 marks)

"Be careful. You've been blessed with a remarkable gift; don't spoil it by being a 16 year old now." (William Forrester) (2 marks)
5. In this movie, we find out that William Forrester did not write any more books after "Avalon Landing". Considering this book was a great success, why didn't Forrester want to write another book? (2 marks)
6. What does Professor Crawford represent? Explain. (2 marks)
7. Jammal is an excellent basketball player and hardly ever misses a foul shot. Near the end of the, a crucial time for Jammal, he misses both shots. Explain the symbolic significance of this. (2 marks)
8. At the end of the movie we learn of William Forrester's death. What does he leave for Jammal? Why is this significant? (2 marks)
9. In a well-structured paragraph, identify a theme for this movie. Refer to both the movie as well as real life to support your comments. (3 marks)