TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD

Scout is a young girl living with her older brother Jem, father Atticus, and their cook Calpurnia. They live in Maycomb Alabama, where the people are just recovering from the horrible effects of the Great Depression. Everything seems to be okay around the neighbourhood; Scout and Jem make a new friend that likes to be called Dill, the neighbors seem nice except for the Radleys and Mrs. Dubose. One day one of the civilians in the neighbourhood gets accused for a crime. Atticus being a lawyer decides to defend the accused civilian. With prejudices lurking around the people will there be justice? Join Scout as she learns what hides within the walls of their neighbourhood and what secrets are kept in the courthouse.
